

"So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." ----Psalm 90: 12

TIME

"When as a child, I laughed and wept,
Time crept;
When as a youth, I dreamed and talked,
Time walked;
When I became a full grown man,
Time ran;
When older still I daily grew,
Time flew;
Soon I shall find in traveling on --
Time gone!"

DEDICATION

This history of Miner School, one of the oldest of the public schools in Fort Wayne, Indiana, is dedicated to the following persons:

To former and present administrative, teaching and custodial staffs, students, parent organizations and other patrons, friends and neighbors -- all of whom have aided in establishing a school of pleasant friendliness. Also to those who will attend or serve the school in the future and continue to carry the name of Miner on to higher levels.
