

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people have given generously of their time to contribute information used in this history. The first five people name have granted extensive interviews or spent much time searching out records or giving me sources of information and deserve special recognition for their untiring efforts to make this history authentic. They include;

Merle J. Abbett, Superintendent of Fort Wayne Public Schools
Mable Holland, Elementary Supervisor of Fort Wayne Schools
Hugh D. Rice, Principal of Miner School at the present time
Albert Diserens, Head of the Reference Department, Fort Wayne Public Library
Mrs. Walter F. Parrott, President of the Miner P. T. A.
Mrs. J. Frederic Smell, School clerk

Others who granted personal or telephone interviews or who wrote contributions for the history include the following:

Past and present staff personnel of Miner School including principals, teachers and supervisors.

Past and present officers and members of the P. T. A., Pre-school and Study Group organizations of the school.

Past and present patrons of the school. (dozens of them !)

Former pupils of the school representing all but the last decade of the schools existence. (Information regarding last decade was requested of teachers and principals rather than pupils.)

Teachers who taught school (not at Miner) during the early part of the century and who were able to contribute information relative to early schools and teaching methods.

Book and Paper References include:

"Pictorial History of Fort Wayne", by B. J. Griswold

"History of Fort Wayne Schools -- 100 Years" in Fort Wayne Journal Gazette of Sunday, October 23, 1921.

"Cecil Foley" clippings from the reference files in the News Sentinel Library.

"History of the Special Education Program in Fort Wayne, Indiana to 1946" by Rhoda Williams

"The Fort Wayne City Directories from 1836 to 1924."

"The School City of Fort Wayne Directories from 1924 to 1951."

"We Have Come Twenty Years" by Merle J. Abbett

"Handbook for Elementary Schools" from the Office of Superintendent Abbett.

"Reports of Fort Wayne Public Schools (Years 1900 and 1905) by Justin N. Study.

"Parent-Teacher Manual 1950-1953" by National Congress of Parents and Teachers"

P.T.A., Pre-school and Study Group record books.

Accession Record of Library Books for the Foley Library (Original purchase).

"The Teacher and School Organization" by Leo Chamberlin and Leslie Kindred.

"How Good is your School?" by Wilbur Yauch

"Parents Look at Modern Education" by Winifred E. Bain

A variety of papers, records, invoices, etc. from school files.