

ON COMMON GROUND

A History of Miner School from 1886 to 1952

- CHAPTER I. Introduction and Historic Setting (Economic, Industrial and Social Trends at the Time Miner was Constructed).
- Chapter II. From the Year "One" -- A General History Down Through the Years.
Part 1 -- Building (Structure) Facts.
Part 2 -- Teaching and Learning -- Then and Now
- Chapter III. Those Who Serve: Administrative Facts of Teachers, Superintendents, Principals, Teachers and Custodians.
- Chapter IV. Celia Foley -- "Greater Love Hath No Man".
Part 1 -- World Traveler, Educator and Philanthropist
Part 2 -- A Character Sketch
Part 3 -- Miss Celia Foley, by Merle J. Abbott
Part 4 -- The Foley Library
- Chapter V. Follow The Leader! Leaders All!
Part 1 -- Message from Merle Abbott, School Superintendent
Part 2 -- Message from J. Wilbur Haley, Principal from 1936-1944
Part 3 -- Message from Harley Lautenschlager, Principal from 1944-1948
Part 4 -- Message from Roger Pfeifer, Principal from 1948-1950
Part 5 -- Message from Hugh D. Rice, Present Principal
- Chapter VI. "Behind The Scenes". Reports from Supervisors and Special Teachers.
Part 1 -- Elementary Supervisors, Mable Holland and Anne Hopman
Part 2 -- Bureau of Research, Louise Brumbaugh
Part 3 -- Visual Education, Catherine Broderick
Part 4 -- Speech Therapy, Vivian Roe and Jack Buschor
Part 5 -- Music: Voice Training, D. Oswald Jones
Part 6 -- Instrumental Music, Gordon Collins
Part 7 -- Art, Mary Zent
Part 8 -- Physical Education, Health and Safety, Clarence Biedenweg and Grace Fielder
Part 9 -- Remedial Reading, Hazel Rinehart