

- our school library was dedicated in Miss Foley's honor, June 7, 1948?
- one thousand dollars worth of good books were purchased for the original accession?
- the Public Library through its Urban School Department has placed an additional 2100 books on deposit in the Miner Library?
- Miner pupils have at various times down through the years published a school paper known as "The Miner" and later as "The Miner Reporter" and still later as "The Junior's Journal"?
- the rental system for textbooks have saved school patrons large sums of money?
- week-day religious training in the school was declared unconstitutional and now these classes are held in mobile units or in a church center if there is one nearby?
- this is the first attempted history to be written of any Fort Wayne School?
- Leslie Kayser, the first Allen County casualty of World War I, attended Miner school?
- the depression days were trying on the schools?
- World War II created quite a teacher shortage in the schools?
- the increased birthrate stemming from World War II has created serious problems of overcrowded classrooms due to increased enrollments?
- during the World War II years at least 90% of Miner pupils purchased War Bonds and Stamps regularly?
- in the years 1943-44 and 1944-45 the Miner School sold more than $32,000.00 worth of Stamps and Bonds?
- each year the 2nd week of November we observe American Education Week and urge all school patrons to visit the school sometime during that week?
- the resurfacing of the playground in its entirety cost $1,618.00 and that approximately one-half of that amount was financed by the P.T.A.?
- children entering kindergarten in September must have had their fifth birthday on or before April 1st of the same year?
- children entering kindergarten in January must have had their fifth birthday on or before November 1st of the preceding year?
- a summer round-up program is held each year for physical check-ups of children who will enter kindergarten during the next year?
- that safety patrols are placed at crossings to help children get across streets safely and that they should be treated with respect by other children and that courtesy should be shown them by motorists?
- and that patrols are on duty twenty minutes before starting time and ten minutes after dismissal time to help boys and girls cross streets?
- fluorescent lighting has been installed throughout the building?