

AND I KNOW YOU WILL REMEMBER:

- the hustle and bustle of preparation for every carnival;
 - ...the hours of planning; soliciting help and donations;
 - ...pre-ticket sales;
 - ...the smell of freshly popped-corn;
 - ...the icy fingers from selling pop;
 - ...dozens and dozens of hot dogs and sloppy joes;
 - ...tasty baked beans and such good potato salad;
 - ...suspense of attendance prize drawings;
 - ...the noisy game rooms, prizes, balloons, and funny hats;
 - ...the wonderful performances in all the talent shows;
 - ...the terrifying shrieks from the spook-house;
 - ...the country store and its wonderful bargains;
 - ...those beautiful cakes, and the fun of the cake walks;
 - ...the mountain of paper and debris gathered up in restoring the school to classroom order;
 - ...that good feeling of accomplishment when the net profit was determined;

- the gorgeous figures, beautiful faces, professional hair-do's and superb gracefulness displayed at the "womanless wedding";

- the hours and hours spent collecting, transporting, arranging and returning the flower show entries every fall.

- the annual Halloween parties held in the schools to lessen property damage to businesses and private properties;
 - ...the horrible witches;
 - ...funny clowns;
 - ...spooky ghosts;
 - ...fierce animals;
 - ...beautiful princesses;
 - ...fairies and elves;
 - ...story book characters;
 - ...homeless hoboes, and
 - ...numerous original costumes.

- the need for the development of a good safety program:
 - ...the safety patrol assignments--with a Captain and a Lieutenant in the key positions with many helpers;
 - ...the fight for the traffic light at Broadway & DeWald with its ultimate defeat;
 - ...the fight for an Adult Guard at Broadway & DeWald with the inception of this program in the Fort Wayne Schools-- with the request granted;
 - ...the fight for a second Adult Guard at Creighton and Miner with this request being granted in 1960-61;
 - ...the stress on all safety measures emphasizing good playing habits, refusal to accept treats and/or rides with strangers etc.
